For again -

For future days in my room & I often look at it & remember your kindness

& cordially

Believe me

Always yours affect.

Estel Somers

My dear Miss Whitney

Your most kind letter was the greatest possible pleasure to me. I am looking forward more than I can tell you to seeing the dead of which I have heard so much - It is most good of you to send me a card, may I ask that it be sent to 57 Gordon Square London. W.C.

It is although its ultimate home will be here, I want show it to the women in London who love Frances and have followed her guiding star, although they have never seen her face —

She wrote me much of the happy days she spent with her in Boston. I was so glad to think of her, with one who could so much be intelligent — as her work was so cut her off from such refreshing companionship —

I look forward much among the many joyful anticipations I have in returning to America to seeing
